The 1984 Disciple Index is divided into three sections: [1] Subjects, [2] Names [of authors, co-authors, contributors, etc. or names of persons whose photograph or portrait is included, mentioned as (about)], and [3] Titles [of articles, letters, news items or poems]. The word "il" means that there is an accompanying photograph or drawing with the item or column, and "por" means that there is a photograph or portrait of the person mentioned.

Sample entries:

- [1] EVANGELISM
When Love Is Set Loose. Howard
B. Goodrich, Jr. il May,
page 13
- [2] KOONTZ, Hilda E. (about)
Examines cornerstone box por
January, page 3
- [3] (author)
In Search of a Cornerstone il
January, page 11
- [4] All the Volunteers that You Could Want! Pat Williams
il February, page 16

Explanations:

- [1] An illustrated article on evangelism, written by Howard B. Goodrich, Jr. is found on page 13 of the May issue.
- [2] An item about Hilda E. Koontz, with her photograph, is on page 3 of the January issue.
- [3] Hilda E. Koontz is also the author of an illustrated article located on page 11 of the January issue.
- [4] All the Volunteers that You Could Want! is the title of an illustrated article on page 16 of the February issue. It is written by Pat Williams.

For news about Disciples of Christ congregations, see Christian Church, Local Congregations Of. Articles are listed alphabetically by state, city and name of church. General articles concerning the Disciples of Christ are found under the caption Christian Church, Disciples Of Christ. Concerning articles regarding specific countries, refer also to the area in which the country is located: i. e., Nicaragua in Central America and Latin America.
